Coverings Gives Back to the Local Community

Coverings will give back to the local community, at this year's show in Orlando, Florida from April 9-12, through a range of charitable initiatives. Continuing its tradition of supporting the host city, Coverings will partner with Clean the World, Habitat for Humanity, and the Pet Alliance of Greater Orlando.

"Coverings wouldn't be possible without the support of our host cities, so it's incredibly important that we give back to the communities that welcome us each year," said Jennifer Hoff, president of Taffy Event Strategies, the management company for Coverings. "With so many industry professionals gathering in one place, we are honored to band together to benefit the area and build even deeper connections here."

Looking Forward & Giving Back

Interactive Experiences and 30th Anniversary Activations

Coverings 2019 will feature a wide range of interactive onsite experiences, including expanded favorites like the Installation & Design Experience and new activations in celebration of its 30th Anniversary.

TileLetter Provides Tips for Contractors on Creating a Coverings Strategy to Make the Show Work for You

By now, your Coverings planning should be in full swing. Do you have a strategy for navigating the thousands of square feet in the Orange County Convention Center, and seeing all the education sessions, demos, features and products you desire, while leaving time to attend parties and network with your peers? How do you do it? We asked several NTCA contractors about their approach to the show to help you go about creating a Coverings strategy of your own.
